Office hours by appointment

Course Objectives: (1) to analyze current theoretical perspectives and empirical research findings on sexual victimization, treatment, and prevention interventions; and (2) to enable each student to integrate her or his knowledge and demonstrated understanding of the course content through written assignments.

Course Content: This course addresses sexual violence (SV) as a major social problem in the U.S. including Hawaii. Causes, effects on victims/survivors, treatment, and prevention will be discussed.

Required Texts: Course materials will consist of articles, book chapters, handouts, videos, guest speakers, and lectures. Required readings are on Laulima: <https://laulima.hawaii.edu/portal>. Students are expected to bring copies of the required readings to class for discussion.

Course Requirements:

- Response Papers: Three (3) short response papers covering topics presented in class will account for 30% of your grade. Each paper must be 2-3 typed pages. These papers should briefly (1/2 page) review the readings/films/lectures covered, what you found most interesting and why. Refer to course outline for paper topics and due dates. Written feedback will be provided with the opportunity for revisions.
- Mid-term Essay Exam: This paper should offer an in-depth/sophisticated analysis of the subject matter presented in class and include citations from class readings/discussions. It will account for 25% of your grade. It must be 5-6 typed pages. Refer to the course outline for paper topic and due date. Written feedback will be provided with the opportunity for revisions.
- Final Essay Exam: This paper should offer an in-depth/sophisticated analysis of the subject matter presented in class and include citations from class readings/discussion. It will account for 25% of your grade. It must be 5-6 typed. Written feedback will be provided.
- Attendance and class participation will account for 20% of your grade. You must be prepared to discuss the assigned readings. You are also encouraged to contribute to class discussions by bringing in any current news stories, share about recent television programs/films, etc. that relate to the topic of SV. Remember, if you miss one class you have missed a week's worth of classes.

All papers must be

- Typed in 12 pt. font (Times/Times Roman).
- Doubled spaced.
- One inch margins on all sides.
- Pages numbered.
- A cover page is NOT necessary.
- Properly cited. Anyone caught plagiarizing will receive an automatic F for the assignment and be referred immediately to the Vice Chancellor for Students Office.
- Turned in at the start of class or emailed before class on the day they are due. Papers turned in late will be docked one letter grade for each day late.
- Papers may be submitted electronically (in a format I can open - no old word processing or new docx files!). If submitting a hard copy make sure it is stapled and has your name on it.

Course grading procedure: There are five assignments required for this course with a total maximum number of 100 points based on:

1 st Response paper	10 points
2 nd Response paper	10 points
3 rd Response paper	10 points
Mid-term Essay Exam	25 points
Final Essay Exam	25 points

Disclosure: This course will cover topics (e.g. rape, incest, child abuse, domestic violence, hate crimes, violence, sexism, racism, heterosexism), present real scenarios, and use graphic images and language that may make some people feel uncomfortable. If you are a survivor of abuse or trauma you may be triggered. Please speak with me if you are having trouble. If this class is not for you, the last day to drop without a “W” is September 14, the last day to drop with a “W” is October 16, and the last day to completely withdraw from all classes with a “W” is December 10 (dates subject to change).

Ground Rules:

1. Respect each other’s confidentiality.
2. Listen with an open mind.
3. Agree to disagree.
4. Have mutual respect.
5. One person speaks at a time.
6. Do not monopolize class time (give others a chance to speak).
7. If you are triggered, traumatized or reactivated by what we are discussing, hearing, or seeing – do what you need to do to take care of yourself (e.g. doodle, stare at the wall, fall asleep, get a drink of water, go to the bathroom, say you have to leave class early, ask me for help).
