Class Objectives:

The objective of this class is to help students gain a basic understanding of quantitative and qualitative research methods. This process includes learning how to choose appropriate research topics, designing effective and appropriate research methods, properly conducting and analyzing data and reporting the results accurately and succinctly. While this course includes the theoretical and methodological issues vital to properly conducting survey research, it also provides an opportunity for students to learn from experience. The entire course is focused on the creation and analysis of (a) an original survey and (b) a handful of semi-structured interviews in an attempt to provide a practical application of the technical elements of social research methods. The assignments build on each other from week to week as the students first choose realistic research topics, then create and conduct a research instrument, and finally analyze the data and report the findings. The lab periods will be used as an opportunity for students to work toward their various assignments as the labs focus more on the technical aspects such as literature searches, data entry and analysis, while the lectures focus on the principles of social research.

The assignments in this course are included to help students develop clear and effective verbal and written communication skills. Therefore I expect that Students’ written work to be clear and the meaning of ideas effectively conveyed. Students must display a wide vocabulary and proper choice of words and exhibit proper sentence structure, some sentence variety, and cohesion between sentences. Papers and presentation must be carefully edited and include few errors in grammar and the conventions of standard written English must be observed.

Assignments:

| Readings | You are expected to have readings completed in the week they are assigned in order to participate and contribute in the class discussion. The text is also a supplementary resource for conducting your research. |

* This schedule is subject to change to accommodate the progress of lectures and projects. Supplementary reading materials may be distributed throughout the course.
Exams

There will be three short exams and one final exam. The exams will be drawn primarily from the course text and lecture material. The short exams include 15 multiple-choice questions and will consist of the readings and material covered in class up to the time of the exams (3 or 4 chapters). You will have 30 minutes to complete these short exams. If you are not present for the short exams you will not receive a score. The final exam is a cumulative exam and will include multiple-choice and a long answer question. It will be made up of the material covered throughout the entire class. You will have 2 hours to complete the final exam, which will be taken in class on the assigned day.

Written Work

Written work for this course is composed of two parts.
(1) A Quantitative paper describing the research topic, a brief literature summary, the creation of the survey, the sample and the findings.
(2) Drafts and summaries (1-2 pages) of your progress for your qualitative and quantitative projects. Due in the labs.

Presentations

Students will make a brief presentation in the final week of classes.

Grading:

Weekly assignments and presentations from labs that contribute to the creation of the quantitative term paper and qualitative presentation – 10%
Quantitative Project – 20%
Short Exams – 15% (5% each)
Qualitative Project – 20%
Final Exam – 25%
Participation/Attendance – 10%
