Sociology 251-001, CRN 82518
Introduction to Sociology of Family
Department of Sociology, University of Hawaii, Manoa
Spring Term 2015

Professor: Dr. Amarjit (Jit) Singh
Office: Saunders
Class schedule: T and Th (R) 12.00 -1.15 p.m.
Room: KUY 209
E-mail: asingh@mun.ca
Office hours: to be arranged.

Course Description

Introduction to Sociology of the Family - Family patterns, mate selection, parent-child interaction, socialization of roles, legal sanctions, trends in organization, functions. Credits (3)

The course provides opportunity for critical and reflective pedagogical analysis of the material covered in the context of globalization for the purpose of evaluating social policy and actions.

This course will be useful for people who plan to pursue higher education in areas related to the field of sociology of families, and for practitioners who have to engage in family relationships at places such as schools, hospitals, prisons, sports organizations, social work programs, parent-school-community development projects, and agencies which provide services to the elderly.

Student Learning Objectives

At the end of the course, you will be able to:

- Read critically and conventionally professional conceptual and theoretical literature in the area of sociology of family, and sociology in general.

- Verbalize (to be able to articulate and participate in the on-going conversations on “family matters”, locally, nationally and globally) in reflective, critical and traditional modes in the context of individual presentations in small/large groups in interaction in the classroom.

- Recognize the value of sharing personal, family, and community wellbeing stories/experiences with your fellow students in this class in the context of small/large group interaction in the classroom.
• Gain insight into the power of sharing personal and collective narratives and memories of growing up in multigenerational and multicultural family households in Hawaii in reflecting upon your/our social selves (Who am I? What do I do? Who are we? What do we do?) in the context of democratic structure of learning and teaching created in this class.

• Learn to research and review professional, common sense, and official/state literature and to practice writing a paper in the context of writing open-ended reflective and critical personal commentaries in the end of each class in this course.

• Learn to develop a structure of attitudes, beliefs, tastes, behaviors and practices required to create conditions for developing positive self-concepts, collaborative, cooperative, and caring social relations with your peer through setting reasonable cultural work expectations in this class and outside this class.

• Learn about and develop some enabling social and practical skills that hopefully will be of help to you in collaboratively solving tasks at hand in this class and also other tasks you may face in your daily life in various situations.

• Become familiar with differences between the Pedagogical and Curriculum Learning and Teaching Objectives through participating in the Scheduled Daily Activities in this course.

Textbook

Course Requirements, Expectations, and Grading

All the above elements of student learning objectives and the organization of the teaching and learning process in this course are explained in detail the first week of the class. Students are encouraged to talk to the instructor individually to clarify any difficulties they might have in understanding the way learning and teaching, and grading processes are organized in this course. Once you as a student understand exactly what is expected, you will do very well in this course. As an instructor my goal is to expect high achievement from all of you in this course, and to create possibilities and opportunities for everyone to attain this desired outcome by using various pedagogical strategies. Chances are that we will achieve this goal, if all of us work together and expect and encourage everyone to achieve high in this course. We all are capable of doing well in this course, and we can do it!

1. Group discussions based on “common sense knowledge”* and “lay theories”* + daily reflections - 10%

2. Group discussions based on “professional”* knowledge and “official/state/government knowledge” + “individual presentation in one’s group”- 20%
3. Mini Lectures by the instructor. Participation (questions and comments by Students in class) - 5%

4. Notes on fifteen chapters - 30%

5. Term paper - 25%

6. Final take home Exam - 10%

Grading*

* These concepts for the group discussions will be discussed and explained in the class.

Notes on each chapter (total of fifteen chapters in the textbook) are explained below, and also discussed in the class:

Students should note that the evaluation in this course is a continuous process. In the end of the course, each student will have her/his “portfolio” for evaluation. For this reason you are required and expected to be present in the class to take part in many activities: (1) you are encouraged to actively participate in the class. Your participation (as peers) is more likely to contribute to your overall achievement in this course, and to the desired outcomes for the course. (2) As a part of this evaluation process, each student is required to submit notes on chapters read in that week. Please make duplicate copies of your notes, one hard copy for the instructor and another hard or electronic copy for you to keep for your own record. The chapter notes will consist of answering the following questions outlined below:

(A). After reading an assigned chapter on the scheduled date (see outline of daily activities), each students is required to (a) prepare a list of twenty concepts that she/he finds interesting in the chapter read, (b) select one concept she/he finds most interesting, (c) briefly describe the selected concept (one to three paragraphs), and (d) describe its significance to her/his (i) personal interaction and relationship, and (ii) professional interaction and development.

(B). What did you (each student separately) learn from your group discussions based on the “common sense knowledge” and “lay theory”? Write a few lines or a paragraph.

(C). What did you (each student separately) learn from group discussion based on “professional knowledge” and “official/ state/ government knowledge”? Write a few lines or a paragraph.

(D) How did individual presentations in a small group setting help you?

LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED, BUT LABELED AS LATE WITH NEGATIVE CONNOTATION.
 Term paper. A good term paper is more likely to improve your chances of getting an ‘A’ in this class. We will discuss in the class what would be considered a “good” term paper in this course. The focus of the term paper will be the role of the contemporary grandparents in Hawaii in the era of globalization. Everyone in this class is expected to write a good paper, and everyone in this class can write a good paper. Working together with your peers, and the instructor, you as a student can write a good paper. We can really do it! Let us, each of us, commit ourselves to this task! The instructor will discuss the general rubric for organizing and writing this paper with each student. Please make duplicate copies of your paper, one hard copy for the instructor and another hard or electronic copy for your own record. The deadline to submit the term paper is March 31.

* Final Take-Home Exam.
The question or the topic for the take-home paper will be selected in the last three weeks of the class. THE FINAL TAKE-HOME EXAM MAY BE SUBMITTED EARLY, BUT MUST BE SUBMITTED NO LATER THAN THE DATE SET FOR EXAM IN THIS COURSE BY UH PERSONNEL.

 Final Grading
The final marks and the final grades will be available only in the end of the term. However, in the middle of the term, students will be told if they are doing “good” work or not. A feedback that “you are doing good work” would mean that your work is equivalent to a “B” grade and you can get an “A”, if you improve your work. An “A” term paper is more likely to improve your chances of getting an overall grade “A”. Please keep this in mind. This is a very important condition in obtaining grade “A” in this course. It is your responsibility as a student to see the instructor to discuss how your work can be improved, and how you can write an “A” term paper in this course. The instructor, however, will frequently give general feedback, as a part of an ongoing feedback process to all students in the class as to how their work can be improved in order to achieve an “A” in this course. Each one of you (as a student) can improve your work in this class. You really can!

Other general information
I will be happy to work with you and the KOKUA program at UH. Please feel free to contact me privately, if you need any accommodation.

Plagiarism Material/ the UH-Manoa Student Conduct Code (1992), p. 6

“It is ultimately each student’s responsibility to learn about plagiarism and how to avoid it. Ignorance of the rules, saying ‘I forgot about that’ or ‘I made a mistake’ is not considered a valid excuse when it comes to plagiarism”.
Sociology 251, Introduction to Sociology of Family, Spring Term 2015
Professor: Dr. Amarjit (Jit) Singh
Office: Saunders Hall
Class schedule: T and Th (R) 12:00 p.m. - 1:15 p.m.
Room: KUY 209
E-mail: asingh@mun.ca
Office hours: to be arranged.

/Instruction starts at U. H. January 12, and ends on May 6 Wednesday, 2015.

(In this Class Instructions start on January 13 and they end on May 5 Tuesday, 2015).

This schedule may be tweaked to fit the climate of classroom teaching as we move forward each week.

Week 1

T Jan. 13 Class begins. Mini lecture: introduction to the course + the sociology of family + sociology + course outline/ pedagogical objectives + reflective teaching and learning + the social self + three forms of knowledge + evaluation + grades/ grading + making sense + small group formation for discussions + daily reflection.

Th Jan. 15 Mini lecture: further clarifications + continuation of discussion of course activities + perspective on evaluation, grades and grading + discussion + formation of groups + what do we bring in this class in terms of personal and collective experience, knowledge, observations + students, teachers, organizations, clients, the state and professions as social contexts + group discussion + collaborative and team work perspectives + group and individual presentations + daily reflection.

Week 2

T Jan. 20 Mini lecture: students as context + what do students bring to the classroom in terms of the social self (occupational and educational aspirations and expectations, family relationships and responsibilities, financial concerns, working and going to the school at the same time) + perspectives on sociology of family and society + forms of knowledge (professional, common sense and official) and cultures of various stakeholders (organizations, clients, service providers, the state, diverse cultural and interest groups, funding organizations.) + cultural practices/cultural and professional workers + group discussion + daily reflection.
Th. Jan. 22  Mini lecture + cultural context of families in Hawaii + personal and family experiences + what needs to be done + making sense of the larger global (macro) contexts (regional, state and national) + making sense of previous readings you have done in sociology and other courses + individual (micro) workplace and neighborhood experiences + observations from the field + sharing personal, family and community wellbeing and health experiences + personal and collective narratives and memories + discussion on take home examination + daily reflection. Read Chapter 1 for next week.

Week 3

T Jan. 27  Mini lecture + Chapter 1: Defining Families + group discussion + individual presentations in one’s own group + observations from the field + daily reflection.

Th. Jan. 29  Mini lecture + chapter 1 continues + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due for chapter 1 + daily reflection. Read Chapter 2 for next week.

Week 4

T Feb. 3  Mini lecture + chapter 2: Declining Families/Enduring Families + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection.

Th. Feb. 5  Mini lecture + chapter 2 continues + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due for chapter 2 + daily reflection. Read Chapter 3 for next week

Week 5

T Feb. 10  Mini lecture + chapter 3: Measuring Families + group discussion + individual presentations + observations from the field + reflection.

Th. Feb. 12  Mini lecture + chapter 3 continues + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due for chapter 3 + daily reflection. Read Chapter 4 for next week.

Week 6

T Feb. 17  Mini lecture + chapter 4: Gendered Families + group discussion + individual presentations in one’s own group + observations from the field + daily reflection.
Th. Feb. 19  Mini lecture + chapter 4 continues + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due for chapter 4 + daily reflection.
Read Chapter 5 for next week.

Week 7

T Feb. 24  Mini lecture+ chapter 5: Diverse Families/Similar Families + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection.

Th. Feb. 26  Mini lecture+ chapter 5 continues + group discussion+ observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due for chapter 5 + daily reflection.
Read Chapter 6 for next week.

Week 8

T March 3  Mini lecture+ chapter 6: Unequal Families+ group discussion+ observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection.

Th. March 5  Mini lecture+ chapter 6 continues+ group discussion+ observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due on chapter 6+ daily reflection.
Read Chapter 7 and Chapter 8 for next week.

Week 9

T March 10  Mini lecture + chapter 7: Love, Sexuality, and Relationship Formation + chapter 8: Marriage and Cohabitation + group discussion+ observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection.

Th. March 12  Mini lecture+ chapter 7 and 8 continue + group discussion+ observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due on chapters 7 and 8 + daily reflection.
Read Chapter 9 for next week.

Week 10

T March 17  Mini lecture+ + chapter 9: Work and Family+ group discussion+ observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection.

Th. March 19  Mini lecture+ chapter 9 continues + group discussion+ observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due on chapter 9 + daily reflection.
Read Chapter 10 and 11 for next week.

Week 12

T March 31 Mini lecture + chapter 10: Entering Parenthood + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection + notes due on Chapter 10 + TERM PAPER DUE.

Th. April 2 Mini lecture + chapter 11: Childhood and Adolescence + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due on ch.11 + daily reflection
Read Chapter 12 for next week.

Week 13

T April 7 Mini lecture + chapter 12: Adulthood and Later Life + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection.

Th. April 9 Mini lecture + chapter 12 cont. + discussion on take home exam + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due on ch.12 + daily reflection.
Read Chapter 13 for next week.

Week 14

T April 14 Mini lecture + chapter 13: Intimate Violence + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection.

Th. April 16 Mini lecture + Chapter 13 cont. + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due on ch.13 + daily reflection.
Read Chapter 14 for next week.

Week 15

T April 21 Mini lecture + Chapter 14: Divorce and Remarriage + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentation in one’s own group + daily reflection.

Th. April 23
Mini lecture + Chapter 14 cont. + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due on ch.14 + daily reflection.
Read Chapter 15 for next week.

Week 16

T April 28
Mini lecture + Chapter 15: Change, Stability, and Future Families + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + daily reflection.
Read Chapter 15 for next week.

Th April 30
Mini lecture + Chapter 15 cont. + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + notes due on ch.15 + daily reflection.

Week 17

T May 5
Last day of the class Mini lecture + group discussion + observations from the field + individual presentations in one’s own group + all notes due.

Reflections and Sense Making of all the chapters read + Mini lecture + making sense of readings continues + group discussion + voices, hope and transformations (social, cultural and personal) + wrap up + major insights + what do we want to say? How do we want to live our lives? How should society be organized? How should people act (use their agency) in the given institutional, societal and cultural constraints? What has yet not been imagined? Exiting words + Aloha and Mahalo.

NOTE: CHECK FOR THE DATE FOR THE FINAL TAKE- HOME EXAM.