

In Partnership With: 100th Infantry Battalion Veterans aka Club 100, Ceeds of Peace, Chaminade University of Honolulu, Conflict Resolution Alliance, Department for Educational Administration-UH Mānoa, East-West Center Leadership Program, Farrington High School, Hawai'i State Bar Association Alternative Dispute Resolution Section, Institute for Climate and Peace, Kailua High School, Kaua'i Economic Opportunity, Ku'ikahi Mediation Center, Lōkahi Foundation, Maui Mediation Services, MediationWorks, Peace Corps, REAL Innovative Connections, Rotary Club at Honolulu Sunset, Teach For America Hawai'i, The Mediation Center of the Pacific, and West Hawai'i Mediation Center

ADVENTURES IN PEER MEDIATION | SKILLS WORKSHOP

MEDIATION THROUGH A CULTURAL LENS

WITH ĀNUENUE MOSE-KANAHELE

LEARN ABOUT PEER MEDIATION SKILLS

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 3 - 3:45 PM HAWAI'I TIME

RSVP AT LENS.EVENTBRITE.COM

Zoom login will be provided to registered participants

Raffle for gift cards:

- One raffle ticket per 'skill workshop' attended from April 8 to April 29.
- Raffle drawing will be held at the 'closing panel' on April 30 for those in attendance.

The Session:

Hooponopono is commonly thought of as a way to mend only family relationships, but family in the Polynesian perspective is extended to our communities, and generations to follow. The way Polynesians address and deal with conflict will be the focus of my presentation.