

"Seeds" for Success

CSS RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

2016-2017 recipients share the outcomes of their research support award

CSS supports faculty in developing and submitting nationally competitive grant proposals

NOVEMBER 16, FRIDAY
1:00PM - 2:30PM
SAUNDERS 704F

PRESENTERS:

Akihiro Masuda and Jonas Vibell, Department of Psychology
Exploring Quantitative and Dynamic EEG Markers of Mindfulness in Mindfulness-Based Intervention

Kristin Pauker, Department of Psychology
"Foreigner Forever?" Exploring Young Children's Essentialist Beliefs About Immigrant Children

Yi Qiang, Department of Geography
Using Social Media Data to Analyze Spatial Zoning, Connectivity and Social Disparities in Honolulu

Seth Quintus, Department of Anthropology
The Historical Ecology of Agricultural Production in Volcanoes National Park, Ka'u District, HI Island

Grayden Solman, Department of Psychology
Managing Space to Manage Goals