Peace Day/Constitution Day 2012
“Supporting Peace by Increasing Community Resilience”
A Panel Discussion Featuring Returned Peace Corps Volunteers (RPCV)

Thursday, September 20, 2012
Reception 3:30; Program 4 - 5 p.m.
Art Auditorium, UH Manoa Campus

21st Century Problem-solving Skills
Panelists will share their experiences to illustrate how their service has provided education, skills, and collaborative working tools to communities worldwide helping them build strong foundations so they are better prepared to face or rise from crises and conflict.

Bruce Barnes (RPCV Nigeria 1965-1967), graduate chair/faculty at Matsunaga Institute for Peace
Kem Lowry (RPCV Malaysia 1966-1969), professor emeritus Urban and Regional Planning and affiliate faculty for the Matsunaga Institute for Peace
Sena Pierce (RPCV Tonga 2007-2010), research associate at McREL’s Pacific Center for Changing the Odds
Kevin Akiyama (RPCV Bulgaria 2006-2008), counselor/administrator for At-Risk Youth programs, Oahu

For more information call (808) 956-6459.