PUBA 2004-2005 Core Year Cohort Visits Ka'ala Farms, Leeward Oahu

Date: December 2004

The 2004-2005 Core Year visited Ka'ala Farms on the leeward side of Oahu on Saturday, December 4, 2004. The visit takes place as part of the Hawaiian Issues module and focuses on Native Hawaiian cultural practices. Butch DeTroye served as the site and cultural guide, impressing on participants the importance of wisely using wai (water) and of caring for the aina (land). Participants helped weed the lo‘i (wet taro patch) and enjoyed fresh kalo (taro) as part of lunch.
