PUBA Welcomes Visiting Scholar Tsedev Damiran from the Academy of Management, Mongolia

Date: January 2005

Tsedev Damiran has been a Visiting Scholar with PUBA since the beginning of the Spring 2005 semester. Dr. Tsedev was until recently the vice Rector of the Academy of Management in Ulaanbataar, Mongolia. Prior to that he was the head of the School of Public Administration. The Academy is the largest professional education and training institution in Mongolia.

Dr. Tsedev received his doctorate in the Soviet Union. In the early 1990s he helped to write the constitution adopted by Mongolia after the end of the Soviet presence. He is working with Dick Pratt on a project analyzing the waves of reforms, originating locally and internationally, that have affected public officials and public institutions since the process of post-communist transition began.
