Delegates from the Academy of Management in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia Visit UH Manoa

Date: January 2010

PUBA and the School of Asian and Pacific Studies hosted two visitors from the Academy of Management in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia during the second week of the New Year. Rector Chuluunbaatar Gelegpil and Director of the International Office Bataa Mishig-ish were in Honolulu to build on the relationship between these two institutions. The PUBA relationship goes back to a 2002 conference held in Mongolia on globalization and development and has continued in various forms since then. This visit highlighted opportunities for collaboration in a number of areas, including hosting PUBA students for their practicum. This would build on practicum of Troy Sonnenberg and Joe Steinberg who did their practicum at the Soros Open Society Forum in Ulaanbaatar in summer 2009.
