PUBA Welcomes New Professor Jill Tao to the Program

Date: August 2006

Please join us in welcoming our newest member, associate professor Jill Tao. Jill comes to us from the University of Oklahoma and received her Ph.D. in Public Administration from The Florida State University. She is involved in the core year with special emphasis on the modules for political perspectives and legislative process. Her teaching interests include comparative and development administration and policy, and her research interests center on the way in which the structure of government and policy affect the well-being of less affluent communities. Jill has lived and worked in a number of different U.S. states, the People’s Republic of China, and Hong Kong (prior to 1997), both in the government and non-profit sectors.
