PUBA Community Speaker’s Forum with Vice-Director of Civil Defense for the State of Hawaii
Ed Teixeira

Date: December 2006

Ed Teixeira, Vice-Director of Civil Defense for the State of Hawai‘i, spoke at the December 1, 2006, PUBA-Community Speaker’s Forum. Mr. Teixeira reviewed some of the recent challenges to affect Hawai‘i--the 42 days of Oahu rain in March 2006, and the Big Island earthquake on October 15, 2006--emphasizing the lessons of preparedness and the need to provide timely information. Mr. Teixeira manages the Civil Defense Division, located in the Birkhimer Emergency Operating Center in Diamond Head Crater.
