PUBA launches new Public Administration Graduate Certificate in Non-profit Management

Date: August 2011

The Public Administration Program launches new Graduate Certificate focusing on Non-Profit Management. This interdisciplinary certificate will provide participants with the tools and framework to meet the increasing challenges facing the non-profit sector. The Non profit track is a year long, 15 credit that includes three required courses (PUBA 630, 636 and 690) totaling 9 credits, and 6 credits of elective course; see listing. A practicum is part of the required courses. Participants may choose from a wide variety of non-profit organizations as practicum sites. The faculty advisor will work closely with each person to make arrangements.
