June 2002 to Present. Member of the “Eating in Public” project in Hawai’i, a eco- and social-sustainability project that aims to build interest, support and capacity for people to engage in land use in ways that are ecologically and socially responsible. This project is predicated on a critique of existing colonial and capitalist property laws (private and public) in Hawai’i and aims to nourish the desire for a return of the commons. We develop and maintain “Free Gardens,” “Free Stores,” and Free Seeds.” We are also engaged in Lo’i creation and stewardship projects in Kailua, Hawai’i in which people in Hawai’i reclaim common property rights, allowing for more sustainable relationships with each other and with the rest of nature.

October, 2002 to Present. Member of A.P.L.E. (Arresting Prostitutes is Legal Exploitation), a sex workers rights organization based in Honolulu, USA that works to decriminalize prostitution and ensure human and worker’s rights for workers in the sex industry. Outreach work to sex workers, including (often with overlapping identities) indigenous Hawaiians, people of colour, transgendered folks, migrants and women.

1999 to Present.
